MEMORANDUM FOR: Senior Training Officers

SUBJECT: Advanced Intelligence Course (Class 1-68)

1. The Central Intelligence Agency has been invited to nominate three persons for the Advanced Intelligence Course which will be held at the Defense Intelligence School during the period 11 September - 15 December 1967 (Class 1-68).

2. This 14-week course is designed for senior personnel from the major contributors to the National intelligence effort and affords an opportunity for them to meet together in a formal school atmosphere. Civilian personnel in the grade of GS-14 and above and GS-13's who have demonstrated exceptional executive potential may be nominated. Additional details on the course are contained in the attachment, and a notice will appear in the July-August issue of the OTR Bulletin.

3. We have been asked to submit our nominations to the Defense Intelligence School prior to 11 August 1967; therefore, please submit your nominations to the Executive Secretary, Training Selection Board not later than 28 July 1967, in order to permit appropriate review before the DIS nomination deadline. In submitting your nominations, include six copies of the biographic profile and most recent fitness report on each nominee.
